PROJECTS

Things rarely get stuck because of the lack of time. They get stuck because the doing of them has not been defined.

—David Allen

PROJECT SUPPORT

If the project is still on your mind, there's more thinking and planning to do.
